

DIRECTIVE

From Department of Army, Washington D. C.

TO: Army National Guard, State of Mississippi, Jackson, Mississippi

Information copy to Air National Guard, State of Mississippi, Jackson, Miss

CGUSCONARC, Ft Monroe, VA

ARMY THREE, Ft McPherson, GA

RUEAHQ/COFS USAF

DA GRNC

BT

From Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations, Attention Col Marshall E Bush,
Assistant Adjutant General, State of Mississippi.

1. The purpose of this Directive is to announce Department of Army instructions pertaining to initial tasks assigned to addressees above.

Tasks follow

A. 1st Battle Group, 155th Infantry Regiment -- Col Marion D Odell, Commanding

Upon assembly Army National Guard armories prepare for vehicular movement to Oxford, Mississippi, closing NLT 10 o'clock AM, 1 October 1962.

Col Odell report to General Charles Billingslea for instructions NLT 2 PM, 30 September 1962 at the Memphis Naval Air Station, Tennessee.

B. 2nd Battle Group, 155th Infantry Regiment -- Col Robert L Gray, Commanding.

Upon assembly Army National Guard armories prepare for vehicular movement to Oxford, Mississippi commencing NLT 10 o'clock AM, 1 October 1962.

Col Gray report to Gen Billingslea for instructions NLT 2 PM, 30 September 1962 at the Memphis Naval Air Station, Tennessee.

C. Armored Cavalry Regiment -- James G Martin, Commanding.

Upon assembly Army National Guard armories prepare for vehicular movement to Oxford, Mississippi closing NLT 10 o'clock, 1 October 1962.

Col Martin report to Gen Billingslea for instruction NLT 2 PM, 30 September 1962, at the Memphis Naval Air Station, Tennessee.

D. Other Units

Commanding Officers commence immediately training program in consonance with mobilization training program.

Await further orders.

E. Coordinating instructions

These initial tasks will be disseminated to units concerned and coordinated by Col Marshall E Bush, Assistant Adjutant General, State of Mississippi.

Vehicles to support troop movement must be assembled at home armories NLT 2200, 30 September 1962.

Individuals weapons only.

No track vehicles or crew-served weapons.

Use of ARNG aircraft for Commanders meeting with Gen Billingslea encouraged.

F. All subsequent orders will be issued by Gen Billingslea.